

Mid-May HuntedTreasure & MyToyGuide Hit List

Welcome to the Mid-May Hit List

Hello...

We are merging HuntedTreasure and MyToyGuide into a single membership... this means that we will be covering all children's items – not just toys... and not just children's gear or clothing. We will highlight both areas every month.

Here is what you will see in the monthly Hit List -

1. Expected Store Sales: Every month we will list what you can expect to find on sale in stores. Most sale items are cyclic and related to the seasons... this information can be helpful in building inventory.
2. A Note from me
3. Hit List: A list of items that are currently selling on eBay along with how that same item is doing on Amazon

This month you can expect to find the following on sale in stores -

Patio furniture, water, party supplies, camping gear, mattresses, water toys, outdoor gear

On the hit list this month...

You will find quite a few vintage items on the list this month – and that is because we are looking for items that can be found relatively easy at yard sales, estate sales, thrift stores and consignment shops that hold their resell value well. Used items tend to hold their value better than new items when reselling because the items that can be found on store shelves will fluctuate on eBay or Amazon based on store stock. When you are reselling an item that is no longer available in stores – the item tends to hold it's resell value longer. These items also tend to be easier to find used at yard sales, etc. than newer toys.

We will be adding more about selling on Amazon in this new hit list format. You'll notice that I've added a note about Amazon at the end of each item below. Our goal is to include more information about selling on Amazon so you have more options for using the info in this Hit List.

Enjoy – and be sure to keep an eye on your inbox for all the details for the new site!

Hit List

Vintage Fisher Price and Pretend Play

Vintage Fisher Price is almost always a hit on eBay – just be careful not to pay too much so you don't dig into your profits when you resell. Often Vintage Fisher Price sells best in lots – however, sometimes there are a few pieces that are worth pulling out separately. We will try to highlight those pieces.

Set to look for: McDonalds

Selling for up to $77. with over a day left and 12 bids
